

Catalina United Methodist Foundation Fund Descriptions

Unrestricted Funds

These funds have no donor-mandated restrictions placed on their use. The periodic interest and dividends are credited throughout the fiscal year to the working funds and are available to Catalina United Methodist Church (CUMC) for expenditure. Gains or losses throughout the year accrue to the principal of the accounts according to their proportion of the total investment pool. Capital gains may be credited annually to the working funds when restrictions to protect the principal are met per Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) and Catalina Foundation bylaws. See Table 1 for information on the history and purpose of the unrestricted funds.
