AMERICAN ACADEMY OF ESTATE PLANNING ATTORNEYS

Everyone needs an Estate Plan.

Is your estate plan in good order? You will learn how comprehensive estate planning can be used to preserve your wealth and legacy for your family or beneficiaries; for retirement and tax planning; and to plan for incapacity and long-term care.

This workshop will provide you with facts that are straightforward and easy to understand.

■ Will vs. Trust

Learn the difference between a will and a trust, and which one prevents probate.

■ Joint Tenancy

Learn why using joint tenancy or transferring your assets before you pass away is an inadequate estate plan.

■ Protect Your Children's Inheritance

Learn how to protect inherited wealth from lawsuits, divorce, or the remarriage of your spouse.

■ Planned Giving

Learn how you can save taxes by making charitable donations from qualified retirement accounts and leave a legacy for causes that are important to you.

■ Disability and End-of-Life Decisions

Learn how to prepare for disability as well as end-of-life decisions.

■ Average Annual Nursing Home Care Exceeds $94K

Learn about Medicaid and VA eligibility to pay for those expenses.

At Kinghorn Law | Financial our passion is to empower individuals and families to achieve peace by educating, coaching, and serving with love and compassion. We help our clients make important decisions and take actions to ensure their loved ones are protected if they are incapacitated or when they pass. Our attorneys and team have earned an outstanding reputation for their expertise, compassion, and desire to "take care" of their clients.

Kinghorn Law | Financial offers comprehensive estate planning, elder law, business succession and formation, and investor coaching services. We assist clients as they plan for potential incapacity and death; represent clients in probate or trust administration; guide new and seasoned business owners in business formation and succession planning; and coach investors on finding and living their true purpose for money. In addition, Kinghorn Law | Financial is recognized as a leader and innovator in helping clients qualify for Medicaid or Veterans Affairs benefits, protecting assets from creditors and other predators.
